CLEANER

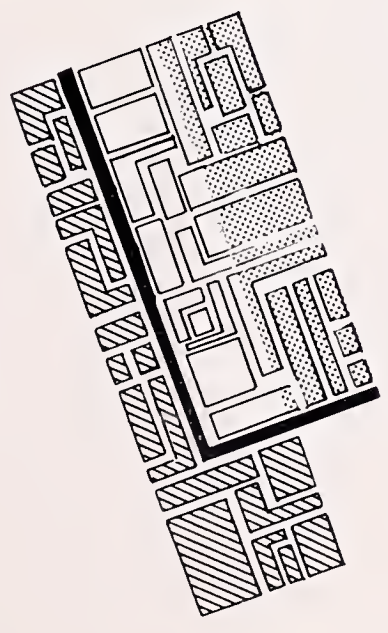

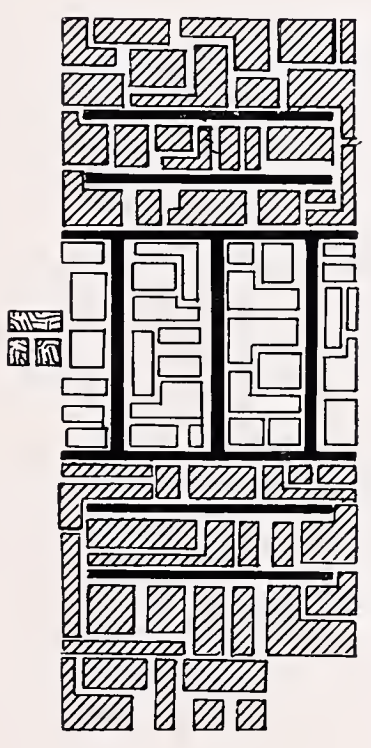

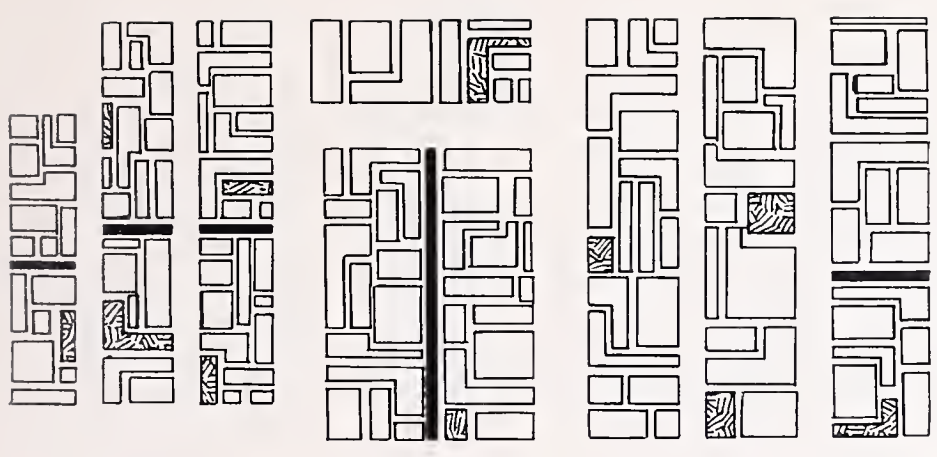

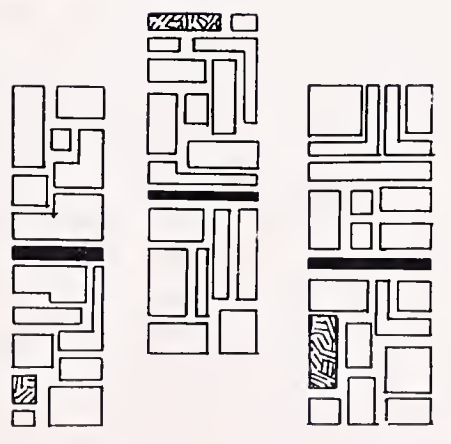

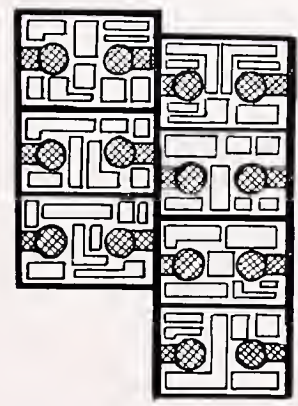

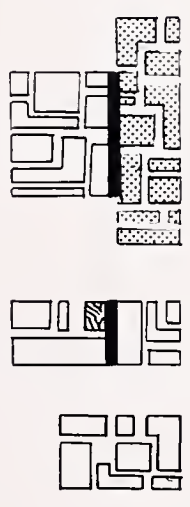

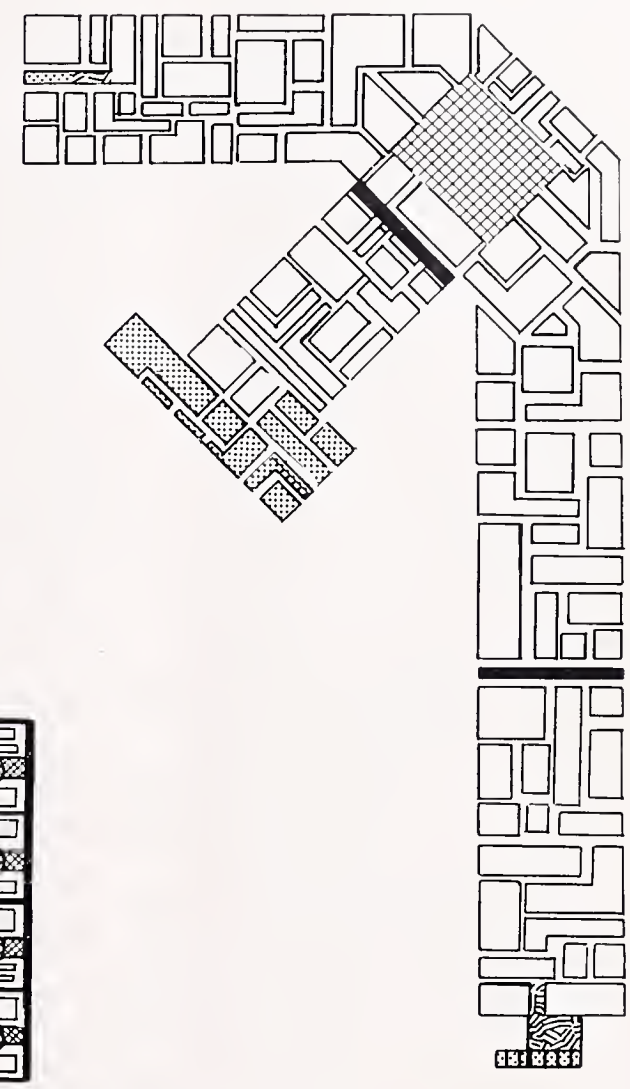

FALL '58

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

With the closing of the fall term of the school year 1958-59, we can look back upon a busy semester. We achieved 100% student body membership, oversubscribed our Community Chest quota, and had a successful Gleaner sale. As usual, contributions to the Guide Dog and Campership funds have been generous. I believe that support of these school and community projects is an important part of our educational experience.

Many interesting, entertaining and educational programs have been part of our activities. These activities, along with the educational progress of the school, have made this semester a successful one.

I hope the members of the present graduating class will be as enthusiastic at Berkeley High School in their support of curricular and extracurricular activities as they have been at Garfield. If they are, I am sure their next three years will be both profitable and interesting.

A. C. BAXTER
Principal

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We, the class of Fall, 1958, have spent three wonderful years at Garfield and are sorry to leave. We take with us many treasured memories, and we shall look back to these times with considerable fondness.

To Mr. Baxter and members of the faculty we all wish to express our appreciation for their guidance and understanding. They have made our stay at Garfield a most enjoyable one. Garfield has contributed much to help us in our future years.

TOM BARTER,
President

ORANGE AND WHITE

(There's a School in Dear Old Berkeley)

1. Oh, it's Garfield Junior High School
 Which stands for all that's true
 And the boys and girls who go there,
 Fair wisdom to pursue,
 Will be loyal to her colors
 As they float in streamers bright
 RAH! RAH!

And will always be defenders
 Of the Orange and the White
 RAH! RAH!

2. Through the three bright years at Garfield
 Midst the scenes we love so well
 As the mystic charm to knowledge
 We truly seek to spell
 Or we win athletic victories
 As upon the field we fight
 RAH! RAH!

Still we'll work for dear old Garfield
 And the Orange and the White
 RAH! RAH!

GARFIELD STUDENT ATTEMPTS MOON

By STEVE CASEY

Science major Frank Cross is calling for a volunteer to accompany him on his proposed trip to the earth's moon. He is now preparing his vehicle for space travel. The trip will be made in a converted garbage can reinforced with discarded hula hoops. The rocket(?) will be powered by an old Model T engine with enough barrel bombs to clear it of the earth's gravitational field.

Cross said he was sure the trip would be a success if he didn't flip his lid.

Kathy Baker and her colleagues, Kathie Kobeley, Kathy Marshall, Kathy Rhoda, Kathy Flegal, and Kae Finch, offered to provision the trip. The menus will be built around such delicacies as dried buffalo meat, llama tongue, evaporated yak milk, and grits.

As a good will gesture Cross plans to take with him 4 Little Richard albums, assorted Mad magazines, and 3 Elvis Presley Fan Club buttons. He hopes to expose the moon people to our advanced culture.

Commenting on the proposed trip, President Barter said, "I hope he doesn't fall out—it would be uncanny."

Cross plans to blast off from the highest point of the Garfield roof, for, as he says, "Every little bit helps."

Bob Liner comments, "What's all this jazz about the moon anyway? I'd rather go to Vegas."

And now, as we leave our struggling explorer in the midst of his labors, he comments, "See you on the moon—goon!"

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

For those old shoes you hate to throw away: why not plant daisies in them? They make a very attractive centerpiece.

If you want to find out whether your guppies are male or female, here is a foolproof method. Just add a little sodium hydroxide to the water. Then if he floats to the top, he is male, and if she floats to the top, she is female.

Hints for redecorating the kitchen: Take the lid off your pressure cooker when you're cooking spinach to obtain a most beautiful shade of green for the ceiling.

Use Twinkie regularly to float your troubles (and drains) away with bubbles.

DEAR JULIUS . . .

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN BY JULIUS

Dear Julius,

I dig a slick chick in Frisco, but she digs a &/@/&* (censored) clod in Oakdale. How can I get her to dig me the most?

J.W.

Dear J.W.: Bury yourself. With all this digging someone's sure to hit uranium. Love, Julius

Dear Julius,

When I'm out with my date, he whistles at other girls. What can I do? Polly

Dear Polly: Feed him crackers!

GARFIELD GOSSIP

by the Garfield Gossiper, Bob Liner

Shireen Mayeri, our capable vice president, seems to have a slight problem. The trouble is believed to have originated a short time ago when she asked for aid in her job of supervising the cafeteria. She now has so many male supervisors that there is no room left for the rest of the students who wish to eat. What is the reason for this sudden outburst of school spirit? Guess!

Q. Rumors have been circulating to the effect that Enden shampoo does not really prevent dandruff. Is this true?

A. An extensive survey on this subject has been conducted by Mr. Van. He has undeniably proved that these rumors are true. Enden does not prevent dandruff. It does, however, make a good hair remover.

Panic struck Garfield yesterday when a prehistoric man was believed to be loose on the premises. However, order was restored upon the discovery that it was only Mr. Lewis, who had neglected to shave that morning. Whew, what a close shave!

Q. Why has Bob Fox been avoiding Garfield's Berryman Street entrance lately?

A. The answer to this question is uncertain. My own investigations on this subject revealed that certain rowdy individuals from the nursery school have it in for him, Bob, however, claims that he is merely afraid of stepping on some of the little dears.

Strange jungle noises echoed through the halls of Garfield last week. The source of the racket was traced to Harty Welsh's locker. It seems that he was keeping in it a menagerie consisting of one three toed tree sloth, four snipes, and two slightly bedraggled baby dinosaurs. In the ensuing confusion, one of the snipes managed to escape. Harty is offering a reward of two turtle eggs for the return of his little friend.

BOOK NOOK

I Was an Algebra Teacher
From Outer Space

This 600 page novel tells the fascinating and spine-chilling story of how monsters from outer space are taking over the teaching profession. There is one very intriguing chapter on monster detection. The author is anonymous, but we've heard that he's a Mr. Van Matre, the most feared algebra teacher at Garfield.

Hot Feet on the Desert

This is an exciting adventure story in which the hero, Rio Nakagawara, is lost in the middle of the Sahara Desert. He is a strong man and is able to survive the elements, but he has very tender feet, and is about to die of hot feet. He is saved when he finds a cool pool. Rio is also the hero of Froze Toes on the Tundra, the first book by the author. David Leif.

Take Over

Take Over is the most thrilling and suspenseful book we've read in years. It seems that a group of ruthless longhairs, led by that diehard Susan Bergmans and armed with Rimsky-Korsakov and Mendelssohn records and books by Plato and Tolstoi, tried to take over the happy fun loving citizens of Garfield. This monstrous plot had been hatching for 2½ years. The handsome hero, Steve Sandner, saved the day when he discovered the plot and squealed to the cops. This book was written by the famous author Robert Patrum.

Karen Graves Bites Mailman

Early this morning mailman John Durantini, white faced and trembling, staggered into the Berkeley police station. After several hours of questioning by Police Chief Van Buskirk, he composed himself enough to tell his ghastly story. It seems that while delivering mail on Arch Street he was attacked and bitten by a girl. Police immediately surrounded the scene of the crime, and soon captured Karen Graves, who was identified by Mr. Durantini as his assailant.

Chiclet Polishing Factory Opens

The Misses Osmond, Steere, Johnson, Jochums, Brown, and Railton today began work in their beautiful, modern plate glass Chiclet polishing factory.

Miss Miriam Osmond, president of the newly formed company, stated that at present they were limiting their polishing to Chiclets Spearmint, but that in the future they hoped to expand their facilities and also polish Chiclets Tutti Frutti.

The new building was dedicated in an elaborate ceremony yesterday. Miriam made a speech and then chewed through the rope of Chiclets strung across the entrance of the building. John Spitzer and Robert Claassen performed a lovely bassoon and clarinet duet.

Abominable Snowman Set Loose in Mr. Curren's Room

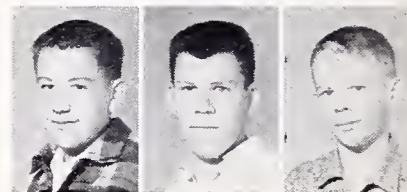

Science student Drew Russell today set loose an abominable snowman in Mr. Curren's room, terrorizing the students. Brave science students Doug Horner and Ken Fullmer engaged the monster in hand-to-hand combat and finally conquered it. They described the snowman as being 6½ feet tall, with a pointed head and reddish brown hair. When questioned about the monster, Drew said that it had been a Christmas present from his uncle in the Himalayas.

CONTEST CORNER

Our contest for this semester consists of the following human interest problems. Whoever answers all of them correctly gets 600 slightly used chartreuse and magenta hula hoops, 4 cases of polished Chiclets spearmint, and a tame gynurt.

1. John, the best dancer in the "Garfield Gassers Dance Group, is 4 feet 11 inches tall, weighs 135 pounds, and wears a size 7 hat. He has a crush on Sapphire, who is 5 feet 5 inches tall. How short should he cut his hair?
2. Little Xavier Flashwarts has 6 ripe walnuts, 7½ friends, and a butcher knife. Should he divide the friends or the walnuts?
3. Gilbert is a friendly warthog. Gilbert loves Garfield, but Mr. Curren wants him for an experiment and chases him all over the halls with Xavier Flashwars' butcher knife every time he sees him. How can Gilbert sneak into Garfield without being seen by Mr. Curren?
4. Mr. Sauers has received several complaints about a wild gynurt breaking into lockers lately. . . . What's a wild gynurt?
5. Jack has an algebra book. . . . That's his problem.

Send your answers, along with one Zoomies boxtop, to Garfield "Gleaner," Box 10, Northeast Pole.

Local Rollers End Season Tomorrow

The North Berkeley Rusty Rollers end their long hard season tomorrow with a special exhibition game against the tough Eastern Blinkers. Fan club president Joel Witkin reminds us of what happened the last time these two teams clashed. Before the contest was half over, two Rollers, three Blinkers, and eleven referees had been carried off the field. As if that weren't enough, the whole audience started a brawl that won an Emmy for the bloodiest fight on T.V. It caused many Friday night fight fans to tune in the Roller Derby. Police Chief Ed Van Buskirk gave up on the mess and went home. Some three days later the battle broke up and everyone went home.

"However," Joel continued, "the contest tomorrow will be a clean sportsman-like affair."

This was backed up by co-captains Harty Welsh and Bob Fox.

Harty said, "We'll kill them cleanly and sportsmanly."

"Daa, yaa," commented Bob.

For those interested in figures, numbers that is, here are some of the season's statistics. The Rusty Rollers have a 5, 90, 5, 25, 350 record. In case you're wondering, the 25 is the critically injured list, and the 350 is fouls committed. This proves their great defensive power.

For those of you who are not regular fans, I'm sure you'll be interested in how the team got its name. It seems that after their first loss (and game) they were so mad that they skated into the shower.

The probable starting lineup for tomorrow's game is Harty Welsh, Bob Fox, Martin Stryker, Bob Liner, Steve Casey, and Bob Bartholomew. See you at the game.

Tony Rollins Breaks Sound Barrier in Biplane

The sound barrier has again been broken, this time by well known stunt pilot Tony Rollins in a Wright biplane, remarkably enough. Tony took off from Oakland airport early this morning and, after doing a few loop the loops and barrel rolls, set out to attain the speed of sound. A large crowd of spectators gathered to watch the historic flight. Bystanders Bob Beharry and Lynn Mahoney said the flight was quite spectacular, and the whole thing was "fantabulous." Tony said, while being interviewed after his flight, "It was nothing."

VAL HEATLIE GETS LARYNGITIS

Valerie Heatlie, one of Garfield's most voluble, experienced, and talented talkers, today came down with laryngitis. We hear that Val was rather frustrated by not being able to use her vocal cords but that all her teachers were overjoyed.

Penny Brogden Takes Cross Country Trip On Motor Scooter

A large crowd gathered today to watch Miss Penny Brogden begin her cross country trip on her motor scooter. Miss Brogden stated that she plans to arrive in New York in April, during Easter vacation, and return to Berkeley just when school lets out for summer vacation. She started her trip from the front steps of Garfield Junior High School. She told reporters Stan Williams and Lowell Yamashita that she has been dreaming of this trip ever since her days in Garfield, and that is why she is starting it from Garfield's front steps. Penny is traveling light, taking only her bongo drums and an ample supply of peanut butter and jelly sandwiches to eat on the way.

At exactly 3:12 Penny zoomed down the steps and was quickly out of sight. Police Chief Van Buskirk and Patrolmen Albert Wong, Bob Hollis, Bill Ojala, and Bob Simm had difficulty in controlling the hysterical crowd, which began to chase Penny, tearfully screaming farewells.

MARTY HORNING GETS LARYNGITIS

Marty Horning, Garfield's famous cheerleader, is the latest victim in the laryngitis epidemic sweeping the school. Marty may have a little trouble leading yells now, especially as Cheerleader Penny Brogden is taking a cross-country trip and Cheerleader John Durantini is recovering from a bite on the leg, but there are always the pompon girls.

Court Taken To Mr. Van

Mr. Van Matre, Garfield's famous algebra teacher, was again caught law-breaking and was tried by Student Court. The second ticket, which brought his case to the attention of the court, was the result of the combined efforts of Kathy Flegal, Tom Barter, and Betty Clinton. It seems that the poor unfortunates in Mr. Kilpatrick's 7th period algebra class had Mr. Van as a teacher one day. During the period there was a fire drill. Mr. Van was seen wrestling with student Bill Jones. Alert Student Leader Chief Betty Clinton observed that this was a misdemeanor and that someone should give him a ticket. Tom Barter quickly acted on this suggestion and filled out a ticket. Even though he is President, he can't give tickets, so Student Leader Kathy Flegal, who also witnessed the crime, signed the ticket.

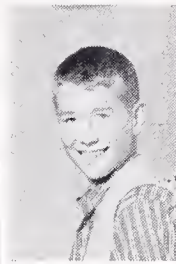

Some time later, Mr. Van's case was brought before the court. When he was sent for, he refused to come to court, so the court went to him. The members of the court, Neil Enkema, Nick Hoogs, Lynn Guffy, Cindy Brown, Miriam Osmond, Jack Breslow, and Jay Phipps, went to Mr. Van's advisory and tried him there. The court found him guilty, but the pronouncement of his sentence was deferred for several days.

Drinking Fountain Uprooted

One of Garfield's several drinking fountains was found uprooted today. Police Chief Ed Van Buskirk, a rabid fan of the Rusty Rollers, told reporters that all the evidence pointed to Rusty Roller co-captain Bob Fox, but that Fox will not be arrested until tomorrow, so that he can play in the game against the Eastern Blinkers today. Van Buskirk urges all Berkeleyans to go to the game and root for the Rollers.

John McPeak Roller Skates Through Halls

Daredevil John McPeak today roller skated from the gym to Room 101, causing a slight commotion in the halls. It seems he was going to make a sharp turn into 101 when one of his skates fell off and he smashed into the door at the end of the hall. Nancy Byce and Dorene Lindstrom, who were standing in front of the door at the time, were slightly injured. John escaped without injury. Unfortunately the skates, which belonged to Rusty Roller co-captain Harty Welsh, were not so fortunate. Harty was annoyed at the damage to his skates, and threatened John with Cliff Gustafson's python.

Python Captured In Tilden Park

A 25 foot long python was captured today in Tilden Park by Herpetologist Harty Welsh, who was assisted by Wayne Broussard, George Crist, Ricky Finch, and Tom Hecker. Harty told reporters that the python was a reticulated python (P. reticulatus) of the Indo-Chinese or Malayan region. This was confirmed by its owner, Cliff Gustafson. Cliff said that he had misplaced the python about three days before. He had advertised for it, but without results, and had almost given up hope. He said that he was very glad to get his pet back.

Bill Jones Goes Down Marin on Skis

That famous stunt man, Bill Jones, today performed one of the most daring feats in the history of Berkeley—namely, going down Marin on skis. This breathtaking exploit was given very little publicity, so unfortunately we have no photographs or eye-witness accounts. However, Bill has promised to do it again as soon as he gets out of his cast.

WILD FOUR DAY PARTY IN BERKELEY HILLS

While Patrolman Albert Wong was covering his beat in the Berkeley hills today, he heard groans coming from one nearby house. Immediately he sensed foul play and broke into the house where he found four young ladies moaning on the floor. He quickly called an ambulance and they were taken to Alta Bates, where they were today reported out of danger by Nurse Cynthia Hurlbut.

When Reporter Mary Yarwood was permitted to interview the girls, it was disclosed that their names were Lynn Gallagher, Penny Hearn, Maylin Harnden, and Penny Moorehead. It seems that their birthdays were all in a row, and so they had a continuous four day party. They became sick from eating too much birthday cake. The oldest of the group, Lynn Gallagher, said that their birthdays were actually in April, but they couldn't wait. The four will probably be released from Alta Bates sometime tomorrow.

STAGE AND SCREEN

By LOUELLA PARSNIPS

The latest news from Garfield is that the drama department has just produced their annual play. This year it is "Visit to a Mexican Tortilla Factory," a real tear jerker by that famous playwright and orator, Art Simburg. That great tragedian, Lee Ellis, plays the role of the hero, ably supported by Miss Barbara Kaleva, Miss Elaine Hemp, and the rest of the all-star cast. The play is so stirring that on the first night it stirred everyone out of their seats in the biggest fiasco in years. The play is very popular, however, and every night thousands jam the auditorium to laugh their heads off.

Before this tragi-comedy the big dramatic attraction at Garfield was the Latin class's play. This thrilling drama was titleless, but nevertheless was a big hit. It seems that an American boy, played by that noted star, Neil Enkema, was somehow transported to ancient Rome, where he met a Roman boy (Nick Hoogs). After Neil was "all togged out in a toga by slave John Durantini, with some small difficulty, he was invited to a wedding by the Roman boy. The wedding made up the main part of the play. The bridegroom, Quintus, was ably portrayed by Tom Barter while Carolyn Beach was Claudia, the bride. Although Tom had a little trouble picking Carolyn up, the play was quite good. The fact that the entire cast was dressed in togas lent a nice touch of authenticity to the play, even though a flashlight was used for a torch.

WHAT'S YOUR T.Q.?

(Yes, Another Test for Students.)

On the following pages you will find pictures of some of the Garfield faculty. Page 12 has twenty numbered pictures of teachers as you know them today. Page 13 has twenty lettered pictures of these same teachers plus three others.

Give yourself four points for each pair of pictures correctly matched. (Match the letters with the numbers listed below.) Give yourself one point for each authentic signature you can get to correspond with your matched numbers and letters. Give yourself one bonus point for each of the three teachers left over on page 13 if you can get their signatures.
